

BRINLEY GOLD SHIPWRECKTM Rum

Brimstone Hill's cannons protected the beautiful island of St. Kitts and her valuable sugar cane for hundreds of years. Many a ship met her demise off of this Caribbean coastline, including a British troopship during the Battle of Frigate Bay in 1782. Brinley Gold Shipwreck Rum is blended to match the old rums spiked with exotic spices and flavors that drifted ashore from distant lands.

Hand-crafted on the beautiful, yet treacherous island of St. Kitts, Brinley's mission is simple – to make the best tasting flavored rum in the world. Using a molasses base, each rum is blended with only the finest natural ingredients. Their award-winning, small batch, premium flavored rums include Vanilla, Coffee, Mango, Coconut, Spiced, and their Coconut Rum Cream.

The Brinley family has a history on St. Kitts that dates back to 1984. In 2004, Bob and, his son, Zach began hand-crafting their Brinley Gold Vanilla Rum and opened a small Rum Shoppe on the cruise port. Through the years they've added Coffee, Mango, Coconut, Spiced, and most recently Coconut Rum Cream. As Spiced Rum sales surged, Brinley Gold rebranded their rums to include the Shipwreck name.

BRINLEY GOLD SHIPWRECK™

Ingredients:

The ingredients are sourced from various countries best known for that product; from mango and coffee from Brazil to vanilla from Madagascar to coconut from the nearby islands in the Caribbean, the flavors are natural and authentic.

Distillation:

Each bottle of Shipwreck Rum is essentially distilled and infused Caribbean Cane Sugar refined into a premium molasses. Light rum is double distilled in a continuous column still. Purified water and natural Caribbean Cane Sugar are blended into a simple syrup then infused with natural ingredients to create premium flavored rums.

Shipwreck Spiced Rum uses a proprietary blend of pot still and column still rums that are aged in American oak once-charred barrels for 4 years. Each small batch is a blend of 10 barrels infused with natural spices and flavor extracts.

The Brinley Gold Difference:

Brinley strives to infuse more flavor into every bottle than its competition, so you can enjoy Shipwreck neat or on the rocks. No need for mixers!
